NEW PLEA BY MARTENS

Asks to Pay Fare to Russia of All Bolsheviki Rounded Up Here.

William L. Ettinger, City Superintendent of Schools, announced yesterday that he will ask the immediate dismissal of six women school teachers who have been found to hold membership in the revolutionary communist party. The teachers' allegiance to the doctrines of the radical organization whose avowed purpose is the overthrow of the United States Government was discovered from papers seized in the recent raids on seventy-one headquarters of the communist party here at the instance of the Lusk Legislative Committee.

At the same time Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, the unrecognized Bolshevik Ambassador to this country, who is at liberty under $1,000 bail furnished after his arrest for contempt of the legislative committee, forwarded to the State Department in Washington a letter in which he offered to arrange through the Russian Soviet Govern Russian radicals and protesting against the suggestion that they be sent to territory under the rule of anti-Bolshevik forces.

Special Despotch to THE BUN. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16 .- President Wilson's attitude toward the ratification or rejection of the peace treaty, with the Lodge reservations will be made known to-morrow.

Senator Hitchcock (Neb.), temporary Democratic leader, will see the President early in the day. This became known to-day. When asked about it Senator Hitchcock admitted that arrangements had been made for his visit to the White House. Beyond that he did not wish to discuss probabilities. A conference of Democrats will be held early in the week, probably tomorrow evening, to consider the entire treaty position. It will not be a party gathering, because only supporters of the treaty will be invited. No effort will be taken to adopt any binding programme. It will be for general consultation and, generally, understanding about the course to be fol-

Following his visit to the White House two weeks ago, Senator Hitchcock talked about his conference with the President. but his statements were rather cryptic as to the main issue-whether the President finally would be willing to have the treaty ratified with the Lodge reservations. Some who talked with the Senator concluded that the President was determined never to accept these reservations. Others deduced that, while he was not willing to admit it yet, the President finally would accept the Lodge eservations rather than decline to de-

Similarly, the Knox reservation, which makes the United States merely a conlivered before the Volkswehr, warned sulting member of the league, probably of the danger of a counter revolution, will fail. The same is true of the Johnson reservation, providing that the United States shall on all questions have equal votes with the British Empire in both the council and the assembly of the league. After the reservations are perfected the Senate will vote on the resolution of ratification, including the reservations that will have been adopted; and it will fail of the two-thirds votes required. Then on reconsideration the vote will he taken again, the Administration BELEAST, Nov. 16.-Fifty armed Sina Democrats this time voting for it and Feiners boarded the steamship Minnie explaining that they prefer to ratify
